Summary of the Board’s Decision

[1] The Respondent failed to provide a Record of Work on completion of Restricted Building Work. He is fined $1,000 and ordered to pay costs of $500. The disciplinary finding will be recorded on the public Register for a period of three years.

The Charges

[2] The prescribed investigation and hearing procedure is inquisitorial, not adversarial. There is no requirement for a complainant to prove the allegations. The Board sets the charges and decides what evidence is required.¹

¹ Under section 322 of the Act, the Board has relaxed rules of evidence which allow it to receive evidence that may not be admissible in a court of law. The evidentiary standard is the balance of probabilities, Z v Dental Complaints Assessment Committee [2009] 1 NZLR 1.

- [3] In this matter, the disciplinary charges the Board resolved to further investigate² were that the Respondent may, in relation to building work at [Omitted], have failed, without good reason, in respect of a building consent that relates to Restricted Building Work that he or she is to carry out or supervise, or has carried out or supervised, (as the case may be), to provide the persons specified in section 88(2) with a Record of Work, on completion of the Restricted Building Work, in accordance with section 88(1) of the Act contrary to section 317(1)(da)(ii) of the Act.

Draft Decision Process

- [4] The Board's jurisdiction is that of an inquiry. Complaints are not prosecuted before the Board. Rather, it is for the Board to carry out any further investigation that it considers necessary prior to it making a decision.
- [5] Ordinarily, the Board makes a decision having held a hearing.³ The Board may, however, depart from its normal procedures if it considers doing so would achieve the purposes of the Act, and it is not contrary to the interests of natural justice to do so.⁴
- [6] In this instance, the Board has decided that a formal hearing is not necessary. The Board considers that there is sufficient evidence before it to allow it to make a decision on the papers. There may, however, be further evidence in relation to the matter that the Board was not aware of. To that end, this decision is a draft Board decision. The Respondent will be provided with an opportunity to comment on the draft findings and to present further evidence prior to the Board making a final decision. If the Respondent requests an in-person hearing, or the Board directs that one is required, this decision will be set aside a hearing will be scheduled.

Evidence

- [7] The Board must be satisfied on the balance of probabilities that the disciplinary offences alleged have been committed⁵. Under section 322 of the Act, the Board has relaxed rules of evidence which allow it to receive evidence that may not be admissible in a court of law.

Failure to Provide a Record of Work

- [8] A Licensed Building Practitioner must provide a Record of Work for any Restricted Building Work that they have carried out or supervised to the owner and the Territorial Authority on completion of their Restricted Building Work.⁶
- [9] There is a statutory requirement under section 88(1) of the Building Act 2004 for a Licensed Building Practitioner to provide a Record of Work to the owner and the

² The resolution was made following the Board's consideration of a report prepared by the Registrar in accordance with regulation 10 of the Complaints Regulations.

³ Regulation 10 of the Complaints Regulations.

⁴ Under Clause 27 of Schedule 3 the Board may regulate its own procedure and it has summary jurisdiction, which allows for a degree of flexibility in how it deals with matters: Castles v Standards Committee No. [2013] NZHC 2289, Orlov v National Standards Committee 1 [2013] NZHC 1955

⁵ Z v Dental Complaints Assessment Committee [2009] 1 NZLR 1

⁶ Section 88(1) of the Act.

Territorial Authority on completion of Restricted Building Work⁷ unless there is a good reason for it not to be provided.⁸

Did the Respondent carry out or supervise Restricted Building Work?

- [10] The Respondent was engaged to construct a new dwelling. His work included work on the foundations, framing and bracing (primary structure) and damp proofing, ventilation system and cladding (eternal moisture management systems).

Was the Restricted Building Work complete?

- [11] The Complainant, who was the main contractor, said the Respondent was engaged from October 2022 to September 2023. A post wrap/cavity Council inspection took place on 12 July 2023. The Inspection noted that all inspections related to the Respondent's Restricted Building Work had been completed and passed. As such, 12 July 2023 is the completion date.

Has the Respondent provided a Record of Work?

- [12] The Complainant requested the Record of Work from the Respondent verbally, in text messages and by email on 28 August 2023 and 5 October 2023. The Respondent did not reply.
- [13] The Respondent provided a Record of Work dated 10 October 2023 to the investigator on or about 18 October 2023, being the same date that he received notice of the Complaint. The Respondent said to the investigator on 18 October 2023 that the Record of Work had been provided "a few days ago". There is no evidence of this.
- [14] The Council file was obtained on 25 October 2023, and it contained the Respondent's Record of Work dated 10 October 2023. There is no evidence of the date of receipt by the Council.
- [15] There is no evidence as to whether the Record of Work was supplied to the Complainant or homeowner. The Board has, however, previously held that when the Record of Work is provided by the Respondent to the Territorial Authority, it is, in effect, also provided to the owner.⁹
- [16] The Record of Work was provided three months after completion of the Restricted Building Work and after the Complainant had sought it from him with no response.

Was there a good reason?

- [17] Section 317(1)(da)(ii) of the Act provides for a defence of the Licenced Building Practitioner having a "good reason" for failing to provide a Record of Work. If they can, on the balance of probabilities, prove to the Board that one exists, then it is open to the Board to find that a disciplinary offence has not been committed. Each case will be decided by the Board on its own merits, but the threshold for a good reason is high.

- [18] The Respondent said in his written response to the investigator that “the only reason I didn’t give paperwork was because I wanted them to replace the 2 sheets of gib and 15 starter strips.” This was a reference to the use on the project of 2 sheets of gib belonging to the Respondent to replace 2 sheets that were damaged on delivery.
- [19] Disputes over non-payment are not an acceptable reason for withholding the Record of Work. The Board has repeatedly stated that a Record of Work is a statutory requirement, not a negotiable term of a contract. The requirement for it is not affected by the terms of a contract, nor by contractual disputes. Licensed Building Practitioners should now be aware of their obligations to provide them, and their provision should be a matter of routine.
- [20] The Board, therefore, finds that no “good reason” has been established for the failure to provide the Record of Work on completion.

Did the Respondent fail to provide a Record of Work?

- [21] The Respondent failed to provide a Record of Work on completion of the Restricted Building Work in breach of section 88 (1) of the Act.

Board’s Decision

- [22] The Respondent has committed the disciplinary offence under section 317(1)(da)(ii) of the Act of failing to provide a Record of Work on completion of Restricted Building Work.

Penalty, Costs and Publication

- [23] Having found that one or more of the grounds in section 317 applies, the Board must, under section 318 of the Actⁱ, consider the appropriate disciplinary penalty, whether the Respondent should be ordered to pay any costs and whether the decision should be published.
- [24] The matter was dealt with on the papers. Included was information relevant to penalty, costs and publication, and the Board has decided to make indicative orders and give the Respondent an opportunity to provide further evidence or submissions relevant to the indicative orders.

Penalty

- [25] The Board has the discretion to impose a range of penalties.ⁱⁱ Exercising that discretion and determining the appropriate penalty requires that the Board balance various factors, including the seriousness of the conduct and any mitigating or aggravating factors present.¹⁰ It is not a formulaic exercise, but there are established underlying principles that the Board should take into consideration. They include:¹¹

- (a) protection of the public and consideration of the purposes of the Act;¹²
- (b) deterring other Licensed Building Practitioners from similar offending;¹³
- (c) setting and enforcing a high standard of conduct for the industry;¹⁴
- (d) penalising wrongdoing;¹⁵ and
- (e) rehabilitation (where appropriate).¹⁶

- [26] Overall, the Board should assess the conduct against the range of penalty options available in section 318 of the Act, reserving the maximum penalty for the worst cases¹⁷ and applying the least restrictive penalty available for the particular offending.¹⁸ In all, the Board should be looking to impose a fair, reasonable, and proportionate penalty¹⁹ that is consistent with other penalties imposed by the Board for comparable offending.²⁰
- [27] In general, when determining the appropriate penalty, the Board adopts a starting point based on the principles outlined above prior to it considering any aggravating and/or mitigating factors present.²¹
- [28] Record of Work matters are at the lower end of the disciplinary scale. The Board's normal starting point for a failure to provide a Record of Work is a fine of $1,500, an amount which it considers will deter others from such behaviour.
- [29] It is a mitigating factor that the Record of Work has now been provided. Accordingly, the Board has reduced the fine from the starting point and orders that a fine of $1,000 is to be paid by the Respondent.

Costs

- [30] Under section 318(4) of the Act, the Board may require the Respondent to pay the costs and expenses of, and incidental to, the inquiry by the Board. The rationale is that other Licensed Building Practitioners should not be left to carry the financial burden of an investigation and hearing.²²

- [31] The courts have indicated that 50% of the total reasonable costs should be taken as a starting point in disciplinary proceedings²³. The starting point can then be adjusted up or down, having regard to the particular circumstances of each case²⁴.
- [32] The Board has adopted an approach to costs that uses a scale based on 50% of the average costs of different categories of hearings, simple, moderate, and complex. The current matter was simple, and the draft decision has been made on the papers.
- [33] Based on the above, the Board's costs order is that the Respondent is to pay the sum of $500 toward the costs of and incidental to the Board's inquiry.

Publication

- [34] As a consequence of its decision, the Respondent's name and the disciplinary outcomes will be recorded in the public Register maintained as part of the Licensed Building Practitioners' scheme as is required by the Act,²⁵ and he will be named in this decision, which will be available on the Board's website. The Board is also able, under section 318(5) of the Act, to order further publication.
- [35] Within New Zealand, there is a principle of open justice and open reporting, which is enshrined in the Bill of Rights Act 1990.²⁶ Further, as a general principle, publication may be required where the Board perceives a need for the public and/or the profession to know of the findings of a disciplinary hearing, and the courts have stated that an adverse finding in a disciplinary case usually requires that the name of the practitioner be published.²⁷
- [36] Based on the above, the Board will not order further publication.

Section 318 Order

- [37] For the reasons set out above, the Board directs that:

Penalty: Pursuant to section 318(1)(f) of the Building Act 2004, the Respondent is ordered to pay a fine of $1,000.

Costs: Pursuant to section 318(4) of the Act, the Respondent is ordered to pay costs of $500 (GST included) towards the costs of, and incidental to, the inquiry of the Board.

Publication: The Registrar shall record the Board’s action in the Register of Licensed Building Practitioners in accordance with section 301(I)(iii) of the Act.

In terms of section 318(5) of the Act, there will not be action taken to publicly notify the Board’s action, except for the note in the Register and the Respondent being named in this decision, which will be publicly available on the Board’s website.

[38] The Respondent should note that the Board may, under section 319 of the Act, suspend or cancel a Licensed Building Practitioner’s licence if fines or costs imposed as a result of disciplinary action are not paid.

Submissions on Draft Decision

[39] The Board invites the Respondent to:

- (a) provide further evidence for the Board to consider; and/or
- (b) make written submissions on the Board’s findings. Submissions may be on the substantive findings and/or on the findings on penalty, costs and publication.

[40] Submissions and/or further evidence must be filed with the Board by no later than the close of business on 26 February 2024.

[41] If submissions are received, then the Board will meet and consider those submissions.

[42] The Board may, on receipt of any of the material received, give notice that an in-person hearing is required prior to it making a final decision. Alternatively, the Board may proceed to make a final decision which will be issued in writing.

[43] If no submissions or further evidence is received within the time frame specified, then this decision will become final.

Request for In-Person Hearing

[44] If the Respondent, having received and considered the Board’s Draft Decision, considers that an in-person hearing is required then one will be scheduled, and a notice of hearing will be issued.

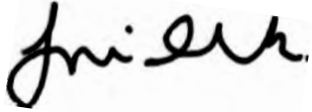

[45] A request for an in-person hearing must be made in writing to the Board Officer no later than the close of business on 26 February 2024.

[46] If a hearing is requested, this Draft Decision, including the Board’s indicative position on penalty, costs and publication, will be set aside.

Right of Appeal

[47] The right to appeal Board decisions is provided for in section 330(2) of the Actⁱⁱⁱ.
