Introduction

- [1] This penalty decision arises out of the Board’s substantive decision in which it found that the Respondent had failed, without good reason, in respect of a building consent that relates to restricted building work that he or she is to carry out (other than as an owner-builder) or supervise, or has carried out (other than as an owner-builder) or supervised, (as the case may be), to provide the persons specified in section 88(2) with a record of work, on completion of the restricted building work, in accordance with section 88(1) (s 317(1)(da)(ii) of the Act).
- [2] Having found that one or more of the grounds in section 317 applies the Board must, under section 318 of the Act<sup>1</sup>, consider the appropriate disciplinary penalty, whether the Respondent should be ordered to pay any costs and whether the decision should be published.
- [3] In its substantive decision the Board set out its indicative position as regards penalty, costs and publication and invited the Respondent to make written submissions on those matters.
- [4] On 29 March 2019, the Board received the Respondent’s submissions. It has considered them and made the following decisions.

Penalty

- [5] The Board’s initial view was that a $1,500 fine was the appropriate penalty for the disciplinary offence.
- [6] The Respondent asked the Board to reconsider the level of the fine. He noted various complicating factors. In addition to the information provided to the Board in his response to the complaint the Respondent also noted that he had provided the record of work to another contractor. Doing so does not satisfy the requirements of the Act. A record of work must be provided to the owner and the territorial authority. It was not. There are no reasons for the Board to review the level of the fine.
- [7] Having considered the submissions received the Board has decided to uphold its initial view.

Costs

[8] The Board's initial view was that $500 in costs was appropriate. This was a reduced amount and it remains an appropriate contribution towards the costs of the investigation and hearing.

Publication of Name

[9] The Board's initial view was there were no good reasons to further publish the matter. This remains the case.

Section 318 Order

[10] For the reasons set out above, the Board directs that:

Penalty: Pursuant to section 318(1)(f) of the Building Act 2004, the Respondent is ordered to pay a fine of $1,500.

Costs: Pursuant to section 318(4) of the Act, the Respondent is ordered to pay costs of $500 (GST included) towards the costs of, and incidental to, the inquiry of the Board.

Publication: The Registrar shall record the Board's action in the Register of Licensed Building Practitioners in accordance with section 301(1)(iii) of the Act.

In terms of section 318(5) of the Act, there will not be action taken to publicly notify the Board's action, except for the note in the Register and the Respondent being named in this decision.

[11] The Respondent should note that the Board may, under section 319 of the Act, suspend or cancel a licensed building practitioner's licence if fines or costs imposed as a result of disciplinary action are not paid.

Right of Appeal

[12] The right to appeal Board decisions is provided for in s 330(2) of the Act<sup>ii</sup>.

Signed and dated this 18th day of April 2019
