Introduction

- [1] This penalty decision arises out of the Board’s substantive decision in which it found that the Respondent failed, without good reason, in respect of a building consent that relates to restricted building work that he or she is to carry out (other than as an owner-builder) or supervise, or has carried out (other than as an owner-builder) or supervised, (as the case may be), to provide the persons specified in section 88(2) with a record of work, on completion of the restricted building work, in accordance with section 88(1) (s 317(1)(da)(ii) of the Act)
- [2] Having found that one or more of the grounds in section 317 applies the Board must, under section 318 of the Act<sup>1</sup>, consider the appropriate disciplinary penalty, whether the Respondent should be ordered to pay any costs and whether the decision should be published.
- [3] In its substantive decision the Board set out its indicative position as regards penalty, costs and publication and invited the Respondent to make written submissions on those matters.
- [4] On 18 April 2018, the Board received the Respondent’s submissions. It has considered them and made the following decisions.

Penalty

- [5] The Board’s initial view was that a $2,000 fine was the appropriate penalty for the disciplinary offence. The Board noted that this was the second time the Respondent had been found to have failed to have provided a record of work and this this was an aggravating factor.
- [6] When the Board made its Substantive Decision and set the indicative penalty the Respondent had not provided any information pertaining to the matter to the Board. He has now provided explanations which are relevant and which go to mitigation.
- [7] The Respondent has also noted that paragraph [16] of the Substantive Decision stated the work was completed in April 2016. This was a typographical error. Paragraph [6] recorded the correct date of April 2017 and the Board made its decision based on that date.
- [8] The Board accepts, on the basis of the mitigation presented, that there were extenuating circumstances and that a reduction in the fine is warranted. It also notes from the submission that the record of work was withheld for commercial reasons. The Respondent has, however, accepted that this was not acceptable.

- [9] Having considered the submissions received the Board has decided therefore decided to modify its initial view. The fine will be reduced by 50% to $1,000.

Costs

- [10] The Board's initial view was that $500 in costs was appropriate. This is a significantly reduced amount and recognises that the matter was dealt with on the papers. It remains an appropriate amount.

Publication of Name

- [11] The Board's initial view was there were no good reasons to further publish the matter. This remains the case.

Section 318 Order

- [12] For the reasons set out above, the Board directs that:

Penalty: Pursuant to section 318(1)(f) of the Building Act 2004, the Respondent is ordered to pay a fine of $1,000.

Costs: Pursuant to section 318(4) of the Act, the Respondent is ordered to pay costs of $500 (GST included) towards the costs of, and incidental to, the inquiry of the Board.

Publication: The Registrar shall record the Board's action in the Register of Licensed Building Practitioners in accordance with section 301(1)(iii) of the Act.

In terms of section 318(5) of the Act, there will not be action taken to publicly notify the Board's action, except for the note in the Register and the Respondent being named in this decision.

- [13] The Respondent should note that the Board may, under section 319 of the Act, suspend or cancel a licensed building practitioner's licence if fines or costs imposed as a result of disciplinary action are not paid.

Right of Appeal

- [14] The right to appeal Board decisions is provided for in s 330(2) of the Act<sup>ii</sup>.

Signed and dated this 10th day of May 2018
