Summary of the Board's Draft Decision

- [1] The Respondent failed to provide a record of work on completion of restricted building work. He is fined $1,000 and ordered to pay costs of $700. The disciplinary finding will be recorded on the public Register for a period of three years.

The Charges

- [2] The prescribed investigation and hearing procedure is inquisitorial, not adversarial. There is no requirement for a complainant to prove the allegations. The Board sets the charges and decides what evidence is required.<sup>1</sup>
- [3] In this matter, the disciplinary charges the Board resolved to further investigate<sup>2</sup> were that the Respondent may, in relation to building work at [OMITTED], Auckland,

<sup>1</sup> Under section 322 of the Act, the Board has relaxed rules of evidence which allow it to receive evidence that may not be admissible in a court of law. The evidentiary standard is the balance of probabilities, Z v Dental Complaints Assessment Committee [2009] 1 NZLR 1.

<sup>2</sup> The resolution was made following the Board's consideration of a report prepared by the Registrar in accordance with regulation 10 of the Complaints Regulations.

have failed, without good reason, in respect of a building consent that relates to restricted building work that he or she is to carry out or supervise, or has carried out or supervised, (as the case may be), to provide the persons specified in section 88(2) with a record of work, on completion of the restricted building work, in accordance with section 88(1) of the Act contrary to section 317(1)(da)(ii) of the Act.

Draft Decision Process

- [4] The Board's jurisdiction is that of an inquiry. Complaints are not prosecuted before the Board. Rather, it is for the Board to carry out any further investigation that it considers necessary prior to it making a decision.
- [5] Ordinarily, the Board makes a decision after holding a hearing.<sup>3</sup> The Board may, however, depart from its normal procedures if it considers that doing so would achieve the purposes of the Act, and it is not contrary to the interests of natural justice.<sup>4</sup>
- [6] In this instance, the Board has decided that a formal hearing is not necessary. The Board considers that there is sufficient evidence before it to allow it to make a decision on the papers. There may, however, be further evidence in relation to the matter that the Board was not aware of. To that end, this decision is a draft Board decision. The Respondent will be provided with an opportunity to comment on the draft findings and to present further evidence prior to the Board making a final decision. If the Respondent requests an in-person hearing or the Board directs that one is required, this decision will be set aside, and a hearing will be scheduled.

Evidence

- [7] The Board must be satisfied on the balance of probabilities that the alleged disciplinary offences have been committed<sup>5</sup>. Under section 322 of the Act, the Board has relaxed rules of evidence, which allow it to receive evidence that may not be admissible in a court of law.

Failure to Provide a Record of Work

- [8] A Licensed Building Practitioner must provide a record of work for any restricted building work that they have carried out or supervised to the owner and the Territorial Authority (TA) on completion of their restricted building work.<sup>6</sup>
- [9] There is a statutory requirement under section 88(1) of the Building Act 2004 for a licensed building practitioner to provide a record of work to the owner and the TA on

<sup>4</sup> Under Clause 27 of Schedule 3 the Board may regulate its own procedure and it has summary jurisdiction, which allows for a degree of flexibility in how it deals with matters: Castles v Standards Committee No. [2013] NZHC 2289, Orlov v National Standards Committee 1 [2013] NZHC 1955

completion of restricted building work<sup>7</sup> unless there is a good reason for it not to be provided.<sup>8</sup>

Did the Respondent carry out or supervise restricted building work

- [10] The Respondent was engaged to carry out and/or supervise blockwork on a new residential dwelling under a building consent. His work was restricted building work because it formed part of the primary structure of a residential dwelling.<sup>9</sup> He was obliged to provide a record of work on its completion.

Was the restricted building work complete

- [11] The blockwork that the Respondent carried out or supervised took place between April and June 2024, and the Respondent stated that the work that he had supervised was completed on 20 June 2024. The Respondent's record of work was due then or soon thereafter.

Has the Respondent provided a record of work

- [12] The Respondent did not provide a record of work until after a complaint had been made to the Board on 4 June 2025. His record of work, dated 16 June 2025, was provided as part of his response to the complaint. Because the record work was not provided on or soon after completion of the Respondent's restricted building work, he has not complied with section 88(1) of the Act.

Was there a good reason

- [13] In his response to the complaint, the Respondent set out:

At the time of completing the blockwork, I did not receive any direct requests or communication regarding the Record of Work (ROW) from the property owner, developer, or their representatives, and was unaware of any outstanding request for documentation.

Upon checking my email spam folder today, I discovered missed emails from [OMITTED], acting for [OMITTED] requesting the Record of Work. This was the first time I became aware that [OMITTED], or their representatives, required the documentation.

Once I became aware of the request for the Record of Work, I completed and provided it to the relevant party as soon as possible. I acknowledge the requirement under LBP Rules to provide the Record of Work regardless of payment or contractual disputes.

- [14] The provision of a record of work is a statutory requirement. The Act stipulates that it must be provided on completion of restricted building work, not on a request for a record a work being made or received. In short, the Respondent should have provided the record of work on or soon after completion and not waited for others to remind him of his obligations. On that basis, what has been submitted are not good reasons.

Board's Decision

- [15] The Respondent has failed to provide a record of work on completion of restricted building work.

Penalty, Costs and Publication

- [16] Having found that one or more of the grounds in section 317 applies, the Board must, under section 318 of the Act<sup>i</sup>, consider the appropriate disciplinary penalty, whether the Respondent should be ordered to pay any costs and whether the decision should be published.
- [17] The matter was dealt with on the papers. Included was information relevant to penalty, costs, and publication. The Board has decided to make indicative orders and give the Respondent an opportunity to provide further evidence or submissions relevant to the indicative orders.

Penalty

- [18] The Board has the discretion to impose a range of penalties.<sup>ii</sup> Exercising that discretion and determining the appropriate penalty requires that the Board balance various factors, including the seriousness of the conduct and any mitigating or aggravating factors present.<sup>10</sup> It is not a formulaic exercise, but there are established underlying principles that the Board should take into consideration. They include:<sup>11</sup>
- (a) protection of the public and consideration of the purposes of the Act;<sup>12</sup>
  - (b) deterring the Respondent and other Licensed Building Practitioners from similar offending;<sup>13</sup>
  - (c) setting and enforcing a high standard of conduct for the industry;<sup>14</sup>
  - (d) penalising wrongdoing;<sup>15</sup> and
  - (e) rehabilitation (where appropriate).<sup>16</sup>

<sup>11</sup> Cited with approval in Robinson v Complaints Assessment Committee of Teaching Council of Aotearoa New Zealand [2022] NZCA 350 at [28] and [29]

<sup>16</sup> Roberts v A Professional Conduct Committee of the Nursing Council of New Zealand [2012] NZHC 3354; Shousha v A Professional Conduct Committee [2022] NZHC 1457

- [19] Overall, the Board should assess the conduct against the range of penalty options available in section 318 of the Act, reserving the maximum penalty for the worst cases<sup>17</sup> and applying the least restrictive penalty available for the particular offending.<sup>18</sup> In all, the Board should be looking to impose a fair, reasonable, and proportionate penalty<sup>19</sup> that is consistent with other penalties imposed by the Board for comparable offending.<sup>20</sup>
- [20] In general, when determining the appropriate penalty, the Board adopts a starting point based on the principles outlined above prior to considering any aggravating and/or mitigating factors present.<sup>21</sup>
- [21] Record of work matters are at the lower end of the disciplinary scale. The Board's normal starting point for a first offence of failing to provide a record of work is a fine of $1,500, an amount which it considers will deter others from such behaviour.
- [22] The Respondent did, after the complaint had been made, provide a record of work. The Board considers that to be a mitigating factor. The fine is reduced to $500 because of it. The fine is set at $1,000.

Costs

- [23] Under section 318(4) of the Act, the Board may require the Respondent to pay the costs and expenses of, and incidental to, the inquiry by the Board. The rationale is that other Licensed Building Practitioners should not be left to carry the financial burden of an investigation and hearing.<sup>22</sup>
- [24] The courts have indicated that 50% of the total reasonable costs should be taken as a starting point in disciplinary proceedings.<sup>23</sup> The starting point can then be adjusted up or down, depending on the particular circumstances of each case.<sup>24</sup>
- [25] The Board has adopted an approach to costs that uses a scale based on 50% of the average costs of different categories of hearings: simple, moderate and complex. The current matter was simple. Adjustments are then made.
- [26] Based on the above, the Board's costs order is that the Respondent is to pay the sum of $700 toward the costs of and incidental to the Board's inquiry. This is the Board's scale amount for a simple matter that has been dealt with by way of a Draft Decision. It is significantly less than 50% of the actual costs.

Publication

- [27] As a consequence of its decision, the Respondent's name and the disciplinary outcomes will be recorded in the public Register maintained as part of the Licensed Building Practitioners' scheme as is required by the Act,<sup>25</sup> and he will be named in this decision, which will be available on the Board's website. The Board is also able, under section 318(5) of the Act, to order further publication.
- [28] Within New Zealand, there is a principle of open justice and open reporting, which is enshrined in the Bill of Rights Act 1990.<sup>26</sup> Further, as a general principle, publication may be required where the Board perceives a need for the public and/or the profession to know of the findings of a disciplinary hearing, and the courts have stated that an adverse finding in a disciplinary case usually requires that the name of the practitioner be published.<sup>27</sup>
- [29] Based on the above, the Board will not order any publication over and above the record on the Register, the Respondent being named in this decision, and the publication of the decision on the Board's website. The Respondent should note, however, that as the Board has not made any form of suppression order, other entities, such as the media or the Ministry of Business Innovation and Employment, may publish under the principles of open justice reporting.

Section 318 Order

- [30] For the reasons set out above, the Board directs that:
- |                     |   |
| Penalty:     | Pursuant to section 318(1)(f) of the Building Act 2004, the Respondent is ordered to pay a fine of $1,000.  |
| Costs:       | Pursuant to section 318(4) of the Act, the Respondent is ordered to pay costs of $700 (GST included) towards the costs of, and incidental to, the inquiry of the Board. |
| Publication: | The Registrar shall record the Board's action in the Register of Licensed Building Practitioners in accordance with section 301(I)(iii) of the Act.                      |
|                     | In terms of section 318(5) of the Act, the Respondent will be named in this decision, which will be published on the Board's website.                                    |
- [31] The Respondent should note that the Board may, under section 319 of the Act, suspend or cancel a licensed building practitioner's licence if fines or costs imposed as a result of disciplinary action are not paid.

Submissions on Draft Decision

- [32] The Board invites the Respondent to:
- (a) provide further evidence for the Board to consider; and/or
  - (b) make written submissions on the Board's findings. Submissions may be on the substantive findings and/or on the findings on penalty, costs and publication.
- [33] Submissions and/or further evidence must be filed with the Board by no later than the close of business on Tuesday 11 November 2025.
- [34] If submissions are received, then the Board will meet and consider those submissions.
- [35] The Board may, on receipt of any of the material received, give notice that an in-person hearing is required prior to it making a final decision. Alternatively, the Board may proceed to make a final decision, which will be issued in writing.
- [36] If no submissions or further evidence are received within the time frame specified, then this decision will become final.

Request for In-Person Hearing

- [37] If the Respondent, having received and considered the Board's Draft Decision, considers that an in-person hearing is required, then one will be scheduled, and a notice of hearing will be issued.
- [38] A request for an in-person hearing must be made in writing to the Board Officer no later than the close of business on Tuesday 11 November 2025.
- [39] If a hearing is requested, this Draft Decision, including the Board's indicative position on penalty, costs and publication, will be set aside.

Right of Appeal

- [40] The right to appeal Board decisions is provided for in section 330(2) of the Act<sup>iii</sup>.
