Introduction

- [1] This penalty decision arises out of the Board’s substantive decision in which it found that the Respondent had failed, without good reason, in respect of a building consent that relates to restricted building work that he or she is to carry out (other than as an owner-builder) or supervise, or has carried out (other than as an owner-builder) or supervised, (as the case may be), to provide the persons specified in section 88(2) with a record of work, on completion of the restricted building work, in accordance with section 88(1) (s 317(1)(da)(ii) of the Act).
- [2] Having found that one or more of the grounds in section 317 applies the Board must, under section 318 of the Act<sup>1</sup>, consider the appropriate disciplinary penalty, whether the Respondent should be ordered to pay any costs and whether the decision should be published.
- [3] In its substantive decision the Board set out its indicative position as regards penalty, costs and publication and invited the Respondent to make written submissions on those matters.
- [4] On 25 October 2018, the Board received the Respondent’s submissions.
- [5] The submissions received do not deal with matters of penalty, costs and publication. Rather they are in the form of an opinion from a lawyer as regards to the Board’s decision. In this respect the Respondent is reminded of his right to appeal the Board’s decision.
- [6] The Board does note, however, that whilst the submissions refer to a completion date of March 2018 the record of work was not provided till after a complaint was made and then to the main contractor, not to the owner. It was then withheld by the main contractor.

Penalty

- [7] The Board’s initial view was that a fine of $1,000 was the appropriate penalty for the disciplinary offence. This was a reduced amount which took into account the commercial dispute between the main contractor and the Respondent. The Board does not consider there are any reasons to change the penalty.

Costs

- [8] The Board’s initial view was that $500 in costs was were appropriate.

[9] Having considered the submissions received the Board has decided to uphold its initial view.

Publication of Name

[10] The Board's initial view was there were no good reasons to further publish the matter. This remains the case.

Section 318 Order

[11] For the reasons set out above, the Board directs that:

Penalty: Pursuant to section 318(1)(f) of the Building Act 2004, the Respondent is ordered to pay a fine of $1,000.

In terms of section 318(5) of the Act, there will not be action taken to publicly notify the Board's action, except for the note in the Register and the Respondent being named in this decision.

[12] The Respondent should note that the Board may, under section 319 of the Act, suspend or cancel a licensed building practitioner's licence if fines or costs imposed as a result of disciplinary action are not paid.
