Introduction

- [1] This penalty decision arises out of the Board’s substantive decision in which it found that the Respondent had failed, without good reason, in respect of a building consent that relates to restricted building work that he or she is to carry out (other than as an owner-builder) or supervise, or has carried out (other than as an owner-builder) or supervised, (as the case may be), to provide the persons specified in section 88(2) with a record of work, on completion of the restricted building work, in accordance with section 88(1) (s 317(1)(da)(ii) of the Act).
- [2] Having found that one or more of the grounds in section 317 applies the Board must, under section 318 of the Act<sup>1</sup>, consider the appropriate disciplinary penalty, whether the Respondent should be ordered to pay any costs and whether the decision should be published.
- [3] In its substantive decision the Board set out its indicative position as regards penalty, costs and publication and invited the Respondent to make written submissions on those matters.
- [4] On 6 August 2019, the Board received the Respondent’s submissions. It has considered them and made the following decisions.

Penalty

- [5] The Board’s initial view was that a $1,500 fine was the appropriate penalty for the disciplinary offence.
- [6] The Respondent provided a submission attesting to his building experience and good character. He further noted that the impact of the civil dispute with the Complainant and the high quality of the building work he had completed. The Respondent considered he had not done anything wrong and that a penalty was unjustified.
- [7] Countering this is the fact that the Complainant had to resort to a complaint in order to get a statutory document that he was entitled to. The Respondent’s conduct has resulted in a hearing having to be conducted. It could have been avoided by fulfilling his obligations. The submission also indicates that he has not learnt from the matter having stated that he sees he has done nothing wrong. As such the penalty will stand.

Costs

[8] The Board's initial view was that $500 in costs was appropriate. As noted above the Respondent's conduct has resulted in expense being incurred. The sum set is considerably less than the 50% of actual costs incurred. The remainder of the costs are being borne by fee paying licensed building practitioners. A further reduction is not warranted.

Publication of Name

[9] The Board's initial view was there were no good reasons to further publish the matter. This remains the case.

Section 318 Order

[10] For the reasons set out above, the Board directs that:

Penalty: Pursuant to section 318(1)(f) of the Building Act 2004, the Respondent is ordered to pay a fine of $1,500.

Costs: Pursuant to section 318(4) of the Act, the Respondent is ordered to pay costs of $500 (GST included) towards the costs of, and incidental to, the inquiry of the Board.

Publication: The Registrar shall record the Board's action in the Register of Licensed Building Practitioners in accordance with section 301(1)(iii) of the Act.

In terms of section 318(5) of the Act, there will not be action taken to publicly notify the Board's action, except for the note in the Register and the Respondent being named in this decision.

[11] The Respondent should note that the Board may, under section 319 of the Act, suspend or cancel a licensed building practitioner's licence if fines or costs imposed as a result of disciplinary action are not paid.

Right of Appeal

[12] The right to appeal Board decisions is provided for in s 330(2) of the Act<sup>ii</sup>.

Signed and dated this 29th day of August 2019
