Introduction

- [1] This penalty decision arises out of the Board's substantive decision in which it found that the Respondent had carried out or supervised building work or building inspection work that does not comply with a building consent (s 317(1)(d) of the Act).
- [2] Having found that one or more of the grounds in section 317 applies the Board must, under section 318 of the Actⁱ, consider the appropriate disciplinary penalty, whether the Respondent should be ordered to pay any costs and whether the decision should be published.
- [3] In its substantive decision the Board set out its indicative position as regards penalty, costs and publication and invited the Respondent to make written submissions on those matters.
- [4] On 29 January 2019, the Board received the Respondent's submissions. It has considered them and made the following decisions.
- [5] It should be noted that the Respondent, in his submissions, stated that he wishes to appeal the Board's decision. Paragraph [15] of this Penalty Decision details his appeal rights.

Penalty

- [6] The Board's initial view was that a fine of $1,000 was the appropriate penalty for the disciplinary offence.
- [7] The Respondent submitted that as no harm was caused to the Complainant the penalty was excessive. He noted that the home to which the complaint related had been sold for a profit.
- [8] The Board, in imposing a fine, is not recompensing the Complainant. The fine is imposed to deter the Respondent and others from similar conduct and to uphold standards within the licensing regime.
- [9] The Respondent should note that the indicative fine was less than that which the Board normally imposes for similar conduct. The reduced amount was in recognition of the Respondent having taken responsibility for his error and having replaced the cladding.

- [10] The Board did not consider that the submissions made raise any further grounds for a reduction in the fine. The Board has therefore decided to uphold its initial view.

Costs

- [11] The Board's initial view was that $1,000 in costs was appropriate. The Respondent has submitted that he does not intend to appeal costs. The Board takes this as the Respondent accepting the indicative amount which is conformed.

Publication of Name

- [12] The Board's initial view was there were no good reasons to further publish the matter. The Respondent has submitted that undue harm would be caused by publication. As publication was not intended the Board confirms its indicative decision.

Section 318 Order

- [13] For the reasons set out above, the Board directs that:

Penalty: Pursuant to section 318(1)(f) of the Building Act 2004, the Respondent is ordered to pay a fine of $1,000.

Costs: Pursuant to section 318(4) of the Act, the Respondent is ordered to pay costs of $1,000 (GST included) towards the costs of, and incidental to, the inquiry of the Board.

Publication: The Registrar shall record the Board's action in the Register of Licensed Building Practitioners in accordance with section 301(1)(iii) of the Act.

In terms of section 318(5) of the Act, there will not be action taken to publicly notify the Board's action, except for the note in the Register and the Respondent being named in this decision.

- [14] The Respondent should note that the Board may, under section 319 of the Act, suspend or cancel a licensed building practitioner's licence if fines or costs imposed as a result of disciplinary action are not paid.

Right of Appeal

- [15] The right to appeal Board decisions is provided for in s 330(2) of the Actⁱ.

Signed and dated this 12th day of February 2019

Presiding Member
