Summary of the Board’s Decision

- [1] The Respondent failed to provide a Record of Work on completion of restricted building work. A starting point for a fine is $1,500 and the Respondent is ordered to pay costs of $700. The disciplinary finding will be recorded on the public Register for a period of three years.
- [2] The Respondent has provided his Record of Work to the Investigator on 5 March 2025. In recognition of this, the Board will reduce the fine to $1,000. The Board notes however, the Record of Work has not been given to the Complainant. The Board, therefore, directs the Board Officer to send the Record of Work that is on the Board’s file to the Complainant and the Auckland Council.

The Charges

- [3] The prescribed investigation and hearing procedure is inquisitorial, not adversarial. There is no requirement for a complainant to prove the allegations. The Board sets the charges and decides what evidence is required.<sup>1</sup>
- [4] In this matter, the disciplinary charge the Board resolved to further investigate was that the Respondent may, in relation to building work at [OMITTED], have failed, without good reason, in respect of a building consent that relates to restricted building work that he or she is to carry out or supervise, or has carried out or supervised, (as the case may be), to provide the persons specified in section 88(2) with a record of work, on completion of the restricted building work, in accordance with section 88(1) of the Act contrary to section 317(1)(da)(ii) of the Act.

Draft Decision Process

- [5] The Board's jurisdiction is that of an inquiry. Matters are not prosecuted before the Board. Rather, it is for the Board to carry out any further investigation that it considers necessary prior to it making a decision.
- [6] Ordinarily, the Board makes a decision having held a hearing.<sup>2</sup> The Board may, however, depart from its normal procedures if it considers doing so would achieve the purposes of the Act, and it is not contrary to the interests of natural justice to do so.<sup>3</sup>
- [7] In this instance, the Board has decided that a formal hearing is not necessary. The Board considers that there is sufficient evidence before it to allow it to make a decision on the papers. There may, however, be further evidence in relation to the matter that the Board was not aware of. To that end, this decision is a draft Board decision. The Respondent will be provided with an opportunity to comment on the draft findings and to present further evidence prior to the Board making a final decision. If the Respondent requests an in-person hearing, or the Board directs that one is required, this decision will be set aside, and a hearing will be scheduled.

Evidence

- [8] The Board must be satisfied on the balance of probabilities that the disciplinary offences alleged have been committed<sup>4</sup>. Under section 322 of the Act, the Board has relaxed rules of evidence which allow it to receive evidence that may not be admissible in a court of law.

<sup>1</sup> Under section 322 of the Act, the Board has relaxed rules of evidence which allow it to receive evidence that may not be admissible in a court of law. The evidentiary standard is the balance of probabilities, Z v Dental Complaints Assessment Committee [2009] 1 NZLR 1.

<sup>3</sup> Under Clause 27 of Schedule 3 the Board may regulate its own procedure and it has summary jurisdiction, which allows for a degree of flexibility in how it deals with matters: Castles v Standards Committee No. [2013] NZHC 2289, Orlov v National Standards Committee 1 [2013] NZHC 1955.

Failure to Provide a Record of Work

- [9] A Licensed Building Practitioner must provide a record of work for any restricted building work that they have carried out or supervised to the owner and the Territorial Authority on completion of their restricted building work.<sup>5</sup>
- [10] There is a statutory requirement under section 88(1) of the Building Act 2004 for a licensed building practitioner to provide a record of work to the owner and the Territorial Authority on completion of restricted building work<sup>6</sup> unless there is a good reason for it not to be provided.<sup>7</sup>

Did the Respondent carry out or supervise restricted building work

- [11] The Respondent was engaged to carry out roofing work at [OMITTED]. The work included the installation of a roof cladding system. This was restricted building work because it included the external moisture management system (roof cladding) of a residential dwelling.
- [12] Evidence was provided to the Board to establish that the Respondent was the Licensed Building Practitioner who carried out and/or supervised the restricted building work. This was not disputed by the Respondent, who acknowledged carrying out the roofing work and eventually provided a Record of Work dated 25 October 2021 to the Investigator.
- [13] The Board also notes that the Building Consent documentation required records of work for external moisture management systems, including roof cladding, which corresponds to the work the Respondent has admitted to carrying out.

Was the restricted building work complete

- [14] The Complainant advised that the Respondent's building work was undertaken between 8 October 2021 and 22 October 2021. This timeframe was not disputed by the Respondent, who dated his Record of Work 25 October 2021, which is consistent with completion occurring at that time.
- [15] In this instance, the Board finds that completion of the Respondent's work occurred in October 2021.

Has the Respondent provided a Record of Work

- [16] The Complainant filed the complaint on 8 November 2024 and stated that he had requested the Record of Work from the Respondent, but to no avail. The Complainant noted that the Respondent had refused to communicate and failed to provide his Record of Work despite multiple attempts to contact him.
- [17] According to correspondence between the Complainant and Auckland Council, the Council had not received a Record of Work from the Respondent.

- [18] The Auckland Council property file was reviewed as part of the investigation, and it did not contain a Record of Work from the Respondent.
- [19] On 5 March 2025, after the complaint was filed and during the investigation process, the Respondent provided his Record of Work dated 25 October 2021 to the Investigator. However, the Respondent confirmed in subsequent correspondence that he had not provided this Record of Work to either the Territorial Authority or the homeowner.

Was there a good reason

- [20] In his response to the complaint, the Respondent initially claimed that he had provided his Record of Work to the main contractor upon completion, who may have been holding it due to an ongoing payment dispute with the Complainant. However, when asked to provide evidence of having provided it to the main contractor, the Respondent did not respond.
- [21] The Respondent later stated that he had not provided his Record of Work to the Council and the homeowner because he did not have the homeowner's information to fill into the form. The Board notes that the homeowner's details were provided to the Respondent with the initial complaint file on 14 November 2024.
- [22] Even prior to receiving the complaint, there is no evidence that the Respondent made any genuine attempt to obtain the homeowner's details. As a professional carrying out restricted building work, the Respondent had a responsibility to take proactive steps to fulfil his statutory obligations, which would include making reasonable efforts to obtain the necessary information to complete and submit his Record of Work.
- [23] The Board does not consider the Respondent's explanation to be a "good reason" for not providing a Record of Work. The obligation under section 88(1) of the Act is on the licensed building practitioner who carries out or supervises restricted building work to provide a record of work on completion of that work. This is an obligation that cannot be delegated to another party, and the practitioner must take reasonable steps to obtain the necessary information to complete the form.
- [24] The Board has previously determined that the requirement to provide a Record of Work is not optional and that practitioners should have appropriate business systems in place to ensure they meet their statutory obligations. The fact that the Respondent claimed not to have the homeowner's details does not remove or modify this obligation, particularly when those details were subsequently provided.
- [25] The Board, therefore, finds that no "good reason" has been established for the failure to provide the Record of Work on completion.

Did the Respondent fail to provide a Record of Work

- [26] Accordingly, the Respondent failed to provide a Record of Work on completion of the restricted building work in breach of section 88 (1) of the Act.

Board's Decision

- [27] The Respondent has failed to provide a Record of Work on completion of restricted building work.

Penalty, Costs and Publication

- [28] Having found that one or more of the grounds in section 317 applies, the Board must, under section 318 of the Act<sup>i</sup>, consider the appropriate disciplinary penalty, whether the Respondent should be ordered to pay any costs and whether the decision should be published.
- [29] The matter was dealt with on the papers. Included was information relevant to penalty, costs and publication, and the Board has decided to make indicative orders and give the Respondent an opportunity to provide further evidence or submissions relevant to the indicative orders.

Penalty

- [30] The Board has the discretion to impose a range of penalties.<sup>ii</sup> Exercising that discretion and determining the appropriate penalty requires that the Board balance various factors, including the seriousness of the conduct and any mitigating or aggravating factors present.<sup>8</sup> It is not a formulaic exercise, but there are established underlying principles that the Board should take into consideration. They include:<sup>9</sup>
- (a) protection of the public and consideration of the purposes of the Act;<sup>10</sup>
  - (b) deterring other Licensed Building Practitioners from similar offending;<sup>11</sup>
  - (c) setting and enforcing a high standard of conduct for the industry;<sup>12</sup>
  - (d) penalising wrongdoing;<sup>13</sup> and
  - (e) rehabilitation (where appropriate).<sup>14</sup>
- [31] Overall, the Board should assess the conduct against the range of penalty options available in section 318 of the Act, reserving the maximum penalty for the worst cases<sup>15</sup> and applying the least restrictive penalty available for the particular offending.<sup>16</sup> In all, the Board should be looking to impose a fair, reasonable, and proportionate penalty<sup>17</sup> that is consistent with other penalties imposed by the Board for comparable offending.<sup>18</sup>

- [32] In general, when determining the appropriate penalty, the Board adopts a starting point based on the principles outlined above prior to it considering any aggravating and/or mitigating factors present.<sup>19</sup>
- [33] Record of work matters are at the lower end of the disciplinary scale. The Board's normal starting point for a failure to provide a record of work is a fine of $1,500, an amount which it considers will deter others from such behaviour.
- [34] The Board acknowledges that the Respondent has now provided a Record of Work to the Investigator on 5 March 2025. In recognition of this, the Board will reduce the fine by $500 to $1,000. The Board notes however, the Record of Work has not been given to the Complainant. The Board, therefore, directs the Board Officer to send the Record of Work that is on the Board's file to the Complainant and the Auckland Council.

Costs

- [35] Under section 318(4) of the Act, the Board may require the Respondent to pay the costs and expenses of, and incidental to, the inquiry by the Board. The rationale is that other Licensed Building Practitioners should not be left to carry the financial burden of an investigation and hearing.<sup>20</sup>
- [36] The courts have indicated that 50% of the total reasonable costs should be taken as a starting point in disciplinary proceedings<sup>21</sup>. The starting point can then be adjusted up or down, having regard to the particular circumstances of each case<sup>22</sup>.
- [37] The Board has adopted an approach to costs that uses a scale based on 50% of the average costs of different categories of hearings: simple, moderate, and complex. The current matter was simple. Adjustments are then made.
- [38] Based on the above, the Board's costs order is that the Respondent is to pay the sum of $700 toward the costs of and incidental to the Board's inquiry.

Publication

- [39] As a consequence of its decision, the Respondent's name and the disciplinary outcomes will be recorded in the public Register maintained as part of the Licensed Building Practitioners' scheme as is required by the Act,<sup>23</sup> and he will be named in this decision, which will be available on the Board's website. The Board is also able, under section 318(5) of the Act, to order further publication.

- [40] Within New Zealand, there is a principle of open justice and open reporting, which is enshrined in the Bill of Rights Act 1990.<sup>24</sup> Further, as a general principle, publication may be required where the Board perceives a need for the public and/or the profession to know of the findings of a disciplinary hearing, and the courts have stated that an adverse finding in a disciplinary case usually requires that the name of the practitioner be published.<sup>25</sup>
- [41] Based on the above, the Board will not order any publication over and above the record on the Register, the Respondent being named in this decision, and the publication of the decision on the Board's website.
- [42] The Respondent should note, however, that as the Board has not made any form of suppression order, other entities, such as the media or the Ministry of Business Innovation and Employment, may publish under the principles of open justice reporting.

Section 318 Order

- [43] For the reasons set out above, the Board directs that:

Penalty: Pursuant to section 318(1)(f) of the Building Act 2004, the Respondent is ordered to pay a fine of $1,000.

Costs: Pursuant to section 318(4) of the Act, the Respondent is ordered to pay costs of $700 (GST included) towards the costs of, and incidental to the inquiry of the Board.

Publication: The Registrar shall record the Board's action in the Register of Licensed Building Practitioners in accordance with section 301(l)(iii) of the Act.

In terms of section 318(5) of the Act, the Respondent will be named in this decision, which will be published on the Board's website.

- [44] The Respondent should note that the Board may, under section 319 of the Act, suspend or cancel a licensed building practitioner's licence if fines or costs imposed as a result of disciplinary action are not paid.

Submissions on Draft Decision

- [45] The Board invites the Respondent to:

- (a) provide further evidence for the Board to consider; and/or
- (b) make written submissions on the Board's findings. Submissions may be on the substantive findings and/or on the findings on penalty, costs and publication.

- [46] Submissions and/or further evidence must be filed with the Board 15 working days from the date of this Draft Decision.
- [47] If submissions are received, then the Board will meet and consider those submissions.
- [48] The Board may, on receipt of any of the material received, give notice that an in-person hearing is required prior to it making a final decision. Alternatively, the Board may proceed to make a final decision which will be issued in writing.
- [49] If no submissions or further evidence is received within the time frame specified, then this decision will become final.

Request for In-Person Hearing

- [50] If the Respondent, having received and considered the Board's Draft Decision, considers that an in-person hearing is required then one will be scheduled, and a notice of hearing will be issued.
- [51] A request for an in-person hearing must be made in writing to the Board Officer 15 working days from the date of this Draft Decision.
- [52] If a hearing is requested, this Draft Decision, including the Board's indicative position on penalty, costs and publication, will be set aside.

Right of Appeal

- [53] The right to appeal Board decisions is provided for in section 330(2) of the Act<sup>iii</sup>.
